TRAINING INSTITUTE

I completed a comprehensive Frontend Development course at KGISL Micro college Coimbatore, where I learned essential tools for building dynamic web applications. The course covered HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and Sass for creating responsive, user-friendly interfaces. I also gained practical experience with Bootstrap for developing mobile-first websites. Additionally, I explored backend scripting, enhancing my ability to build full-stack web applications.

Project

Ecommerce Web Application

I developed an eCommerce web application using React.js, Bootstrap, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. The application features a responsive, user-friendly interface with dynamic product listings and a smooth shopping experience. It incorporates a flexible and scalable design using React components, along with Bootstrap for styling. The project showcases integration of front-end technologies to create a fully functional and visually appealing online store.

My Portfolio web Application

I developed my portfolio website using React.js, JavaScript, Bootstrap, HTML, and CSS. The website features a modern, responsive design with interactive elements and smooth navigation. It highlights my projects, skills, and experience with dynamic content rendered through React components. The use of Bootstrap ensures a mobile-first, clean, and professional layout.
